

You are invited.

Toronto General & Western Hospital Foundation and the McEwen Centre for Regenerative Medicine together with Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation Canada

Cordially invite you to attend a symposium on the future of diabetes research.

World-leading stem cell researchers Dr. Gordon Keller and Dr. Derek van der Kooy will discuss potential cures to diabetes.

SPEAKERS: Dr. Gordon Keller, Director, McEwen Centre for Regenerative Medicine
Dr. Derek van der Kooy, Department of Molecular Genetics, University of Toronto

MODERATOR: Dr. Gary Lewis, Director, Division of Endocrinology and Metabolism, University of Toronto

Tuesday, November 11th, 6:30 pm – 8:00 pm

Wine and Cheese Reception 6:30 pm

Presentation 7:00 pm

MaRS Conference Centre, 101 College Street, Toronto ON, M5G 1L7, Parking on Elizabeth Street

RSVP

RSVP TG&WHF

Reta Robinson reta.robinson@uhn.on.ca or 416-340-4800, ext. 6789

RSVP JDRF

Asha Lewis alewis@jdrf.ca
or 905-944-4635

Please RSVP by October 31st, 2008

This event is sponsored through the generosity of Rob & Cheryl McEwen and the McEwen Centre for Regenerative Medicine.

www.mcewencentre.com | www.jdrf.ca